

031 Monsters under the Bed ENG

My friend Frank has had a fear of monsters under his bed since he was a child.
Now most children go through periods of being afraid of the dark, or the bogeyman,
But Frank never did outgrow this particular fear.
He hasn't had a good night's sleep in years.
He has been seeing a psychoanalyst for the past five years to help him get over it.
I bumped into him the other day and for the first time since I've known him, he looked rested, happy, and full of life.
I couldn't believe my eyes.
"I've been cured!" he exclaimed triumphantly.
"What great news" I responded. "So the psychoanalyst was finally able to help you after all these years" I continued.
"I stopped seeing him and found another therapist who is a behaviorist and he cured me in just one visit!" Frank told me.
"One visit?" I asked incredulously
"Yup" he replied with an air of victory.
"So, just how did this behaviorist cure you in one visit?" I inquired.
"He told me to cut the legs off my bed!"
